Cr. Revision No.127 of 2007.

4.10.2007. Present: Mr. Ajay Sharma, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. Sandeep Sharma, Assistant Solicitor General of India, for respondent No.1.

Learned Special Judge vide the impugned order dated 14th September, 2007 by referring to various allegations against the petitioner as have emanated from the record allowed the application filed under Section 319 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for impleadment of the petitioner as an accused in the case. These various allegations find a mention in various paragraphs of the order including paras 5, 6, 7 and 8. The learned Special Judge has also taken note of the replies filed to Section 319 application by the petitioner as well as the Central Bureau of Investigation. In view of the reasoning contained in para 14 of the impugned order, he ultimately decided to implead the petitioner as a co-accused.

Without adverting to the details lest such details might prejudice the outcome of the trial or adversely influence the learned Court below against the petitioner or any other accused, I feel satisfied that the impugned order does not suffer from any illegality or irregularity.

The petition is dismissed in limine.

Cr.MP No.459 of 2007.

In view of the dismissal of the Criminal Revision, this application shall also stand dismissed.
